Jackie Kirk, among the first to portray the faces of AIDS victims in fine art, dies at 91 She had painted on May 21, the day she suffered a stroke at her home in Fairfax, said her daughter Bobbi Wilson. It was the start of her career as a portrait artist, which she honed while teaching art

Kaval: A's using Triple-A Las Vegas ballpark as temporary home a 'hypothetical' but could be considered Kaval told The Chronicle that if the A's needed a temporary home, he does consider Las Vegas Ballpark "an option," but for now the scenario is "hypothetical." But I think in general if it was required, like

Review: Memoir 'At the Chinese Table' is both cookbook and delicious love story Unfortunately, her college-level Mandarin is spotty at best, and her inability to communicate, let alone assimilate into the infamously impervious-to-foreigners community, nearly causes her to jump on the first
